

March 7, 2007

Mr. John "Jack" Potter
Postmaster General and
Chief Executive Officer
United States Postal Service
475 L'Enfant Plaza, S.W. Room 10222
Washington, D.C. 20260-0010

Dear Mr. Potter:

The Management Organizations met today to discuss our mutual concerns on the deteriorating work climate our members are experiencing in the field.

We would like to have a meeting with you at your earliest convenience to discuss our concerns.

Postmasters, Managers, and Supervisors are under tremendous pressure, with more requirements, reports, and unrealistic expectations.

We are concerned these conditions, if not reviewed at our level, could result in serious consequences.

Please let us know when you can convene a meeting as we believe that these are issues that should be a concern for both the Postal Service and the Management Associations.

Respectfully,

Dale Goff
President
National Association of Postmasters of the United States

Charles W. Mapa
President
National League of Postmasters

Ted Keating
President
National Association of
Postal Supervisors